KESAB chief, Yalumba leader recognised in entrepreneur awards

Updated 21 July 2009

KESAB Chief, John Phillips, and wine industry leader, Robert Hill, are among those recognised in this year's Central Region Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year awards being held in Adelaide on 6 August.

John has been named Central Region Social Entrepreneur Of The Year for driving his not-for-profit organisation's work in community-based anti-litter and environment programs.

Robert Hill-Smith has been awarded Central Region Champion of Entrepreneurship, for his achievements in business innovation as head of the Yalumba Wine Company.

The 15 nominees in the Central Region Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year awards for the categories of Products, Services, Technology, Young, Listed and Clean Teach are:

Daniel Amadio, the Amadio Group
 Ray Borda, Macro Meats
 Virginia Bullock, Home Support Services
 Lindsay Carthew & Richard Sykes, SCF containers International
 Rahmon Coupe, YourAmigo
 Sean Disbury, Gotta Getta Grop
 Adrian Ferraretto, Solar Shop Australia
 Sam Hamra, Hamra Homes
